

Interview Questions

Arron Chambers, Author of Eats with Sinners

Arron Chambers is the lead minister of Journey Christian Church in Greeley, Colorado. He is a contributing editor for Christian Standard, a coach, an inspirational speaker to thousands of people each year, the husband of a lovely wife, and the father of four beautiful kids.

1. What is your hope for this book, Eats with Sinners?
2. What prompted you to want to write on this topic? Why do you think Christians need to hear this message?
3. Why is evangelism so hard for people? What do you consider to be the hurdles and how do we get over them?
4. What advice would you give to someone who wants to share their faith, but doesn't know where to start?
5. How do we actually love like Jesus loved? What are a few tips for getting started?
6. How do we help people let their guard down, so they can come to know the love of God and the hope of salvation?
7. In your book, Eats with Sinners you point readers toward a biblical model for evangelism--building relationships one meal (or cup of coffee) at a time. Can you unpack that a little for us?
8. If a church wanted to implement only one aspect of this approach to evangelism today, what would have the biggest immediate effect?
9. What one lesson or message do you hope will resonate most with your readers?
