

Interview Questions for Mark Hitchcock

1. You have spent so much of your time writing about end times. Why are end times important?
2. What is the most important thing about end times that you would like for people to know?
3. With different theories on end times, are there any points that most Christians can come together on?
4. Do you see any signs of the times that point to what the Bible predicts for the future? What are they?
5. Can you briefly explain the various views of the timing of the Rapture and detail what you believe to be true of this event as communicated in Scripture?
6. You talk about the Judgment Seat of Christ in your book. How should this spur us to live today in light of this pending judgment day?
7. What should every Christian know about the coming time of tribulation?
8. Can you help us understand the importance of the teaching on the Antichrist in the Bible? What do we, as Christians, do with this knowledge?
9. You have said that the world is moving toward Armageddon. What do you see in current events to support this position?
10. In your book, you help your reader make sense of the Millennium. Can you summarize the three main views of the nature and timing of the millennial reign of Christ and tell us which one you favor?
11. How should the study of end times motivate Christians to live in light of Christ's coming? What advice would you give them about living with hope and anticipation for our eternal home?