Can Your Teens Pass the Toughest Test in College?

Dr. Stephen Meyer Equips Adolescents to Defend Their Faith in New DVD Series

WHAT:

Half of Christian kids raised in the church are walking away from their faith after high school. When faced with the challenge of defending their Christian faith in college, students are finding they are not prepared for the arguments and prejudiced professors that want nothing to do with Christians or Christianity.

That's why Focus on the Family and Tyndale House Publishers have created the TrueU™ DVD series to offer parents and youth leaders the opportunity to discuss a Christian worldview and spiritually prepare their teens to defend their faith.

In the first DVD, Does God Exist?, Dr. Stephen Meyer plays a "philosophical survival game," pitting four worldviews against one another in the quest to decide which one gives the best answers. The DVD kit includes two discs with ten 30-minute lessons, and a 64-page, full-color booklet with discussion questions to be used in group study. Visit www.trueu.org to learn more.

Dr. Meyer is available to discuss the following topics:

- Challenges: What are some of the challenges students face in college?
- Ways parents and youth leaders can use this DVD series to equip young people to defend their faith in an increasingly hostile culture
- Tough topics, including: Faith and Reason, The Big Bang Cosmology, DNA by Design, The Return of God Hypothesis, The Moral Necessity of Theism
- Worldviews: Main ideas of four major worldviews (Deism, Naturalism, Theism, Pantheism)
