Book Synopsis:

What Are You Afraid Of?

Facing Down Your Fears with Faith

For many people, worry, anxiety, and fear are constant companions: fear of death, fear of danger, fear of disease. And too often, these fears are crippling, keeping us from the life God has called us to live.

But it doesn't have to be that way, says Dr. David Jeremiah. As Christians, we have been given all we need in order to face down even the most frightening, unexpected, and overwhelming obstacles in life.

In his new book, What Are You Afraid Of? Dr. Jeremiah explores the top ten fears that are holding so many of us back from the life God has called us to live and shares the supernatural secrets for facing down these fears with faith. This book is intended to deliver the unchanging Word of God to an ever-changing world, helping readers understand that the only thing worth fearing is God himself.

Audience Interest Topics from Dr. Jeremiah:

- Fear is universal. Dr. Jeremiah explores the most prevalent fears in our culture today, and provides solutions for effectively coping with fear.
- Are we living in a culture where we are obsessed, motivated and mesmerized by fear?
 - Dr. Jeremiah shares what he is hearing from people across our nation, and that, as a culture, we often consider if we should no longer take for granted that our kids are safe at school, and we are safe at the movie theatre or dining out at a restaurant. Terrorism, a troubled economy and national disasters seem to loom large in this day and age. What do we do about this? How do we handle these fears?
- Fear keeps us from the life God intends for us to live. What is the role of fear in your life? What is it holding you back from?
- Christians have been given all we need to face down even life's most overwhelming fears--He is sufficient. How do we actually live this out? What does the Bible have to say about this?
- What is Dr. Jeremiah's counsel on the supernatural secrets for facing down fear with faith?
