Stepping Out in Faith Can Transform Life From Ordinary to Extraordinary

Book Synopsis: If you have ever heard yourself say, “Surely there is more to life than this,” rest assured, you are not alone. Getting caught up in the day-to-day routine, it can be easy to feel as though you have nothing more to give, and yet there is so much you want to do to impact the world. In Willing to Walk on Water, Caroline Barnett helps you identify what you were created to do—unveiling your passions, gifts, and callings—and provides practical ways of integrating that purpose into your daily life.

Audience Interest Points:

Author Caroline Barnett is available for interviews to discuss:

- How you will experience a reignited passion for life and a true happiness by living out your unique, God-given purpose.
- How to unveil your passions, gifts, and callings—finding practical ways of integrating that purpose into your daily life.
- What her personal experience at The Dream Center, changing lives on a daily basis, has taught her.
- How God created you to be happiest when you are doing what you care about the most.
 - Discovering how to use your innate gifts, talents and passions to make the lives of those around you better.
 - How God promises to enrich our own lives as well.

About the Author:

Caroline Barnett has a passion for inspiring women of the church to find their God-given cause. In her role at The Dream Center, Caroline has changed people's lives through a wide range of outreach ministries—from starting a food truck ministry that currently feeds over 50,000 people each month, to founding Project Prevention, a foster care intervention program designed to assist families facing the threat of separation due to issues of poverty. Caroline is married to The Dream Center founder and New York Times bestselling author Matthew Barnett; they live with their two children in Los Angeles.

Endorsements:

“Willing to Walk on Water is a practical and profound invitation to all who hesitate on the shores of the miraculous. Not only is this book engaging, it’s empowering. You will be encouraged by stories from Caroline’s life and the lives of so many others who consistently make a difference to the beloved broken. Read and believe that your life will open up and touch thousands.”
