WHEN MOMS PRAY TOGETHER FOUNDER OF MOMS IN TOUCH INTERNATIONAL CELEBRATES 25 YEARS OF MINISTRY WITH NEW BOOK

(Carol Stream, IL) – On a beautiful September morning in 1984, Fern Nichols was assaulted by fear.

Her two eldest sons were entering junior high school that fall, but it was their mother who was beset with worry. “Junior high,” Nichols writes in her upcoming book When Moms Pray Together: True Stories of God’s Power to Transform Your Child, “is a time when ‘tweenagers’ step out of childhood to weather the stormy seas of changing emotions, dangerous temptations, and raging hormones. I was more frightened than they were.”

God honored Fern Nichols’ decision to meet for prayer with one other mom in an extraordinary way. Not only did the Nichols’ children navigate their childhood safely, but their mom’s prayer ministry grew over the course of 25 years from one mom in 1984 to a worldwide ministry of 175,000 moms praying in more than 120 countries. “Each mom discovered that becoming part of a prayer community was one of the most significant things she could do for her child,” Nichols comments.

When Moms Pray Together (October 2009 from Tyndale House Publishing and Focus on the Family), is a collection of true stories of miracles around the world in response to mothers who prayed. Recounted by the moms who lived them, the stories speak of the power of God’s intervention in the lives of young people needing physical or emotional healing or those trapped in anger, addiction, or fear. The October release coincides with the 25th anniversary celebration of Moms in Touch International (MITI).

“Now moms and grandmas are gathering in the villages of Africa, the cities of New York, the forests of Central America, and the remote towns of Russia,” comments Fern Nichols. “When others pray for you and your family – taking on your emotional and spiritual burdens – heaven is moved, earth is touched, and change happens.”
